Comfort Your Joints & Ease Everyday Stiffness

with SerraPhase®
Inflammation Response

Powerful Support for Joints and Muscles

SerraPhase® Inflammation Response features one of the most powerful, natural fibrin-busting ingredients available—serratiopeptidase—to comfort your joints and ease everyday stiffness.†

The serratiopeptidase in SerraPhase supports joint health, comfort and reduced swelling . First discovered in the silkworm, this powerful enzyme has been synthesized into a natural supplement form to help break up protein-based fibrin throughout the body and bring soothing comfort.†

SerraPhase® Inflammation Response is a Powerful Daily Supplement to Support:†

- Relief from fibrin buildup that can cause joint and muscle stiffness
- Healthy joints, range of motion and mobility

Promote Joint Health & Comfort!

Why choose SerraPhase® ?

The body's natural healing process pours white blood cells, or "helper" cells, to the affected area, sometimes leaving cellular debris behind. Keeping this cellular debris to a healthy minimum is important for joint health.

SerraPhase® Inflammation Response features serratiopeptidase, a very potent natural systemic enzyme that helps break up cellular debris in and around joints and throughout the body. This action supports normal low, levels of inflammation for optimal joint comfort and tissue health.†

SerraPhase is Powerful Systemic Enzyme Formula that helps:†

- Promote joint health and comfort
- Support cartilage, tendon, and muscle health
- Support normal, low levels of inflammation

Try SerraPhase® Inflammation Response today for that natural support and relief for your joints & muscles.
